Edyta Juskowiak, Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań, Poland

Dominant cognitive structure - qualitative analysis of a mathematical problem solution

Description of the poster:

Which one of the cognitive structures – functional or predicative, is the dominant in our work on mathematical tasks? Can these structures be recognized by way of analysis of the solution of the task? Do we always use the same mathematical cognitive structure? The poster will try to answer these questions.